

CALL FOR STUDY ASSISTANCE FUNDING – 2021 ACADEMIC YEAR

The Eastern Cape Provincial Arts and Culture Council hereby invites applications for study assistance from individuals for arts, culture and heritage studies in the following artforms: craft, fashion and visual arts, film, language & literature, culture & heritage and performing arts (dance, drama-theatre and music). The call is in support of ECPACC's endeavor to provide formal and informal arts education opportunities to grow the arts, culture and heritage sector in the Eastern Cape province.

Funding will be made available to residents of the Eastern Cape province. Students who are women, youth, people living with disabilities and those from previously marginalised ethnic groups studying at tertiary institutions are encouraged to apply. The invitation is open to undergraduate and postgraduate students. Postgraduate studies may be considered for funding only once towards a qualification and only if the budget permits

Detailed information on the application processes is available at www.ecpacc.co.za.
